O Bonsai Gigante

PEDRO MORAIS

Pedro Morais Nasceu em Moçambique em 1962. Trabalha desde 1981 em ilustração e design gráfico, começando a publicar banda desenhada na revista Tintin. Em 1985 estabeleceu contactos com editoras em França, mas o "portable" que preparou não chegou a ser editado. Publicou em varios jornais, revistas e fanzines, editando há mais de dez anos o graphzine Sine Die. A publicidade já fez parte do seu percurso, mas pretende dedicar a maior parte do seu tempo à ilustração e à BD.

No Próximo Número Quando se começa a leitura, tudo parece indicar o típico final de uma típica história policial: numa mansão imponente e sombria, sobre a qual se abate uma violenta tempestade, na sala principal, de ambiente grave e austero, estão o detective sagaz, o seu prestável ajudante e o criminoso mascarado. Só que quando as máscaras começam a cair, nada é o que parece, e afinal tudo o que parecia, não sendo, era.
O traço de Frank Le Gall, o pai de Teodoro Pintainho, a servir um argumento de Lewis Trondheim, em que com muito humor são narradas As Aventuras do Fim do Episódio.
